Re: United States v. Jarod Ottley
23-cr-201

Dear Judge Rearden,

I represented Jarod Ottley in the above matter. Mr. Ottley was sentenced before Your Honor on August 8, 2023 and received a sentence of probation. Mr. Ottley is respectfully requesting permission from the Court to travel over the Christmas holiday. Specifically, he and his wife will be traveling to Orlando, Florida from December 20, 2023 to December 27, 2023 and will be spending the holidays with his family in an Airbnb. From Orlando, Mr. Ottley and his wife intend to travel to Trinidad to tend to his mother-in-law, who is ill. He will travel to Trinidad on December 27, 2023 and will return to his home on January 4, 2024.

Mr. Ottley has been 100% compliant while on probation thus far and has been making restitution payments to the SBA in a timely manner. Mr. Ottley's probation officer, Lisa Famulero, has no objection to this request. Ms. Famulero has indicated to the undersigned counsel that she is in receipt of his travel itinerary. The Government also has no objection to Mr. Ottley's request.

Your Honor's time and consideration of this request is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
